Notes to Parents and Guardians:

- Rosedale Heights is a school of the arts. Students who have particular skills and talents will be given enrichment opportunities. Interviews will be scheduled with students to determine their needs.
- Academic programs are complemented by numerous opportunities for co-curricular involvement in student clubs, sports, musical ensembles, dance recitals, drama presentations and art shows.

COMMUNICATION COURSES – Students who have been identified as EXCEPTIONAL via the IPRC process need to have school staff complete Sections 3 a, b, c on the front of this sheet. Students need to indicate if they would like to take GLE1O with an "x". (GLE1O may be taken instead of French or their optional subject.)

Yes, I want to take GLE1O ☐

COURSE SELECTION PROCESS

Course Selection Sheets are used for educational planning and are required each year. Please note that changes to a student's program will only be made for sound educational reasons and where enrolment is insufficient to warrant a course being offered.
